

Being Church

October 2025

Dear Friends,

Greetings to you in the name of Christ.

In our Christian calendar, October does not usually have noteworthy holy days or prominent celebrations. Perhaps, apart from All Hallows Eve (or “Halloween” as in colloquial parlance) on 31 October, there is nothing significant to look forward to celebrating as Christians. However, an important day of remembrance often goes unnoticed this month. The same day we observe All Hallows Eve, it is also the “Reformation Day.” Over 500 years ago, Martin Luther, burdened by the corruption and distortions he saw in the Church, was compelled by Scripture to challenge the status quo. So, on 31st October 1517, Luther posted his 95 Theses on the door of the All Saints Church in Wittenberg (Germany), sparking the Protestant Reformation—a movement that emphasised returning to the authority of Scripture and the centrality of grace through faith.

Reformation Day is a time to remember how God used Martin Luther and other reformers to call the Church back to the truth of the Gospel. It also reminds us that the Word of God must always be our foundation, and that the Church is always in need of renewal and alignment with Scripture. The five “solas” of the Reformation still echo with power: Sola Scriptura (Scripture alone is our highest authority), Sola Fide (We are justified by faith alone), Sola Gratia (Salvation comes by grace alone), Solus Christus (Christ alone is our Saviour and Mediator), and Soli Deo Gloria (All glory belongs to God alone). Luther’s cry was not for division, but for renewal—a reformation rooted in truth, repentance, and a deeper understanding of God’s grace. But, historically, has it been the case?

Luther's call for reform within the Roman Catholic Church had wide-ranging theological, cultural, and political ramifications. Even though the Reformation sought to return to a more biblical Christianity, it undoubtedly contributed to religious wars, inquisitions, and persecution, as different factions (Catholic, Protestant, Anabaptist, etc.) fought for power across Europe. As Christians, we must wrestle with how easily faith can become entangled with political forces. I write this article in the wake of the death of Mr Charlie Kirk, who was tragically shot and killed while speaking at Utah Valley University. Whether you agreed with him on every issue or not, Charlie's boldness in talking about Christ and biblical values in a hostile culture was inspiring. Charlie's death is a recent addition to the extreme examples of political violence that are sweeping across the USA and the modern world in general.

As we approach another Reformation Day, I encourage you to primarily think about this question: How can we maintain theological integrity without fostering division that leads to violence? Let's also not forget what Luther intended via the Reformation. Have we subtly replaced God's truth with tradition, comfort, or convenience? Are we clinging to grace or trying to earn our way by works? Are we pointing others to Christ, or to ourselves? The Reformation wasn't perfect, but it was a turning point—a revival of truth. Today, may it spark renewal in our churches, revival in our hearts, and a return to the simplicity and power of the Gospel. Let us live reformed lives—not just in theology, but in love, holiness, humility, and faith.

Yours in Christ's Service,

Abi Alex

Circuit Celebration Praise

The next Celebration Praise will be held at Tadcaster on Sunday, 12 October at 3pm, followed by a faith tea. All welcome.

Tadcaster Circuit Celebration – 200 years!!

“The Tadcaster Circuit was formed in 1826, apparently following a decision taken at the 1825 Annual Conference. The presence of a manse and the availability of more land for expansion must have been important factors for the town had been part of the York Circuit which included almost 50 villages.”

A date for your diary: There will be a Circuit Celebration Service on Sunday 19 July, 2026, 10.30am at Boston Spa, followed by lunch. The preacher will be Revd Leslie Newton, Chair of District. At the Circuit Meeting, each church will be/has been asked to consider holding an event (concert/afternoon tea/special service...the choice is yours) to which we can invite the whole Circuit to attend. Please check with Juliana, the Circuit Administrator, before booking the date. We would like these events to be spread out throughout the year if possible. Thank you.

5 Year Plan

The CLT will present the draft 5 Year Plan to the Circuit Meeting – please ask your representatives about it. This will be followed up with the Circuit Vision Day, ‘What’s our Future Story?’ with Revd Ruth Gilson-Webb, District Assistant Chair – Church Development, on Saturday 1 November 10am-2pm. All welcome to attend. Please bring your lunch. Please continue to pray about this in your churches.

Circuit Bible Study

A Bible Study programme is being held at Tadcaster and all are welcome. We are studying “An insight into the letter of James” and the sessions began in September and are held on Fridays at 1.30pm – 17 October, 21 November, 12 December.

3Generate

Please pray for our group from the Circuit who are attending 3Generate on 3-5 October. We look forward to telling you all about it on our return. Find out about it here: 3Generate 2025 - The Methodist Church

If you have something you wish to highlight in the Nov '25 issue of Being Church (or the diary), please send it to Juliana by Friday, 17 Oct. Thank you. tadcastercircuit@gmail.com

Shoobox Nativity Display

Open Door Café

Christmas gift stall

As part of the Town Christmas Market, once again we invite individuals, schools, businesses and groups to create a Shoobox Nativity Scene using craft, paint, stitch or paper.

The only requirement is that the Nativity must be presented in a shoebox that will be part of a Christmas display. Traditional, contemporary or something different, we would be delighted to have them on display.

Exhibits can be left at Tadcaster Methodist Church on:

- Sunday, 24th and Tuesday, 26th November 10.00am - 11.30am
- Friday, 29th November 10.00am - 11.30am and 3.00pm - 5.30pm
